GRAND JURY RESISTERS

These brave souls were last seen at the Federal Courthouse in Seattle. They are imprisoned for "civil contempt" after refusing to provide information to a secret Federal Grand Jury investigating anarchist activity in the Pacific Northwest. Though they are not accused of any crime, the state could keep them locked away in SeaTac Federal Detention Center until March 2014 when the Grand Jury expires. This is a blatant and sickening attempt to coerce them into talking to the authorities about others' ideas, affiliations, and actions. It will not work.

This Grand Jury exposes what many of us already know: that our "rights" mean nothing. These three beautiful people have been stolen away from their loved ones for refusing to participate in the repression of rebels fighting against this rotten system.
